

TYPES OF RALLIES

REGIONAL RALLIES

Volunteer rally masters organize regional rallies throughout the United States and Canada. All members are invited to join the rallies and enjoy the highlights of the area. Rally activities may feature tourist attractions, local food specialties, festivals or entertainment, but they always include the famous Beaver camaraderie. Past rallies have included the Albuquerque Balloon Fiesta, Rose Parade, Branson, and the Death Valley 49er Encampment. Regional rallies are usually small (5 to 25 coaches) and are a good way to have fun while getting to know BAC members.

INTERNATIONAL RALLIES

Great food, entertainment and seminars on coach care and the RV lifestyle are hallmarks of BAC international rallies. These rallies can precede or follow FMCA (Family Motor Coach Association) conventions, which are usually held twice a year. There can be 75 to 200 Beaver coaches participating. BAC is a chapter of FMCA, and BAC international rallies provide an opportunity for our Board of Directors to conduct official club business.

ROLLING RALLIES

Rolling rallies make traveling fun and easy. The volunteer rally master does all the planning, makes the arrangements at the RV parks, and finds the best places to eat and visit along the way. They also make sure that you have traveling companions so you are not alone during your drive. These rallies often run a caravan of coaches to BAC international rallies; or the group may just tour a scenic area together. Some are even mystery rallies with unannounced routes and surprises along the way. Past rolling rallies have included tours of Alaska, Canada, and the "Grand Circle" four corners region.

Rally Sign-up Hints

Many of our rallies fill up quickly, so check BAC newsletter Beaver Tales or the BAC web site often. The Beaver Tales is in member's mailboxes and online by the first week of March, June, September, and December. Complete the registration form from Beaver Tales (or online for some) and mail with a deposit, to the rally master. If you are not yet a member, call the rally master and ask if there are openings for a "Beaver Guest." You may attend one rally without being a member of BAC.

Even if a rally is full, get on the waiting list. Most rallies have people who have to change their plans. BAC prides itself on making new members feel welcome. We would love to meet you, and we think you would love the activities and support provided by the members of the club. So why not come out and join the fun.
